

Greetings!

Sean Wilson our PGA Golf Pro has spent a lot of time on the road with Provo Golf Club's Ambassador David Feherty over the last year and with good reason. Not only has Sean been an integral component to PGC'S relationship with "Ambassador Feherty" in the first year success of David's "Reign" (as Mr. Feherty likes to put it) but also the Feherty endorsement has led to some amazing marketing for our Club. David is as popular as ever and only puts his name to Provo Golf Club, and the Turks and Caicos. The result gives great credit to both the destination and the quality of our championship golf course.

We wish all a great summer as we head into the lazy, quiet, days of slow season on island!

Sincerely,
Dave Douglas, Director of Golf

FEHERTY

In Sean's own words:-

"Our Golf Club Ambassador David Feherty has had a busy spring with his new gig at NBC Sports and will continue this summer covering many events including the British Open, Scottish Open, and Ryder Cup along with a large presence at the return of golf to the Olympics in Rio this summer. Upon completion of his summer golf schedule I'll be hitting the road again with David to promote Provo Golf Club as he resumes his Offtour Live Show throughout North America. 6TH ANNUAL WINE CELLAR CUP CONTINUES THE TRADITION

Early April saw "The Wine Cellar Golf and Fishing Tournament" enjoy another amazing week of fun and fundraising by raising $50,000 in support of the Edward C. Gartland Youth Centre; as well as the Turks & Caicos Islands Sailing Assoc. The total combined efforts were split evenly with $25,000 going to each great cause. Gilley Williams was on hand to host, sponsor, and play in his inspired unique golf format that saw 92 golfers on 23 teams compete. The event was supported through both golf and participation by Turks & Caicos Premier Dr. Rufus Ewing who was on hand to reinforce the importance of youth involvement in the future of the T & C. The winning team in this unusual and demanding format saw Mike and Mary Eddy, Graham Malyan, and Carol Brown take home bragging rights for the year with an excellent score of 136 narrowly edging out second place from the team of Grant Noble, Jumhol Srinark, Ingo Reckhorn and Rob Ayer who finished at 136.90. A fraction back in third place was Bob Reder, John Donatien, Craig Wood and Josh Germain who had a great day as well. Mervin Cox, Garry Hastings, Todd Foss, and Sean Brathwaite finished close behind in fourth position. The long drives champions were monstrous strikes by Fraser Dods and Michelle Patterson, while Dudley Berry, Ewart Brown, Ken Patterson, and Grant Noble captured the Carlisle Supply Challenge by winning their closest to the pins popular "bar fridges". Carol Brown and Grant Noble (again) captured the Casablanca Casino sponsored 17th hole to claim the many casino chips offered by the friendly Casino. In fact the "most honest" four-some category was awarded to Andy Stephens, Frank Francoeur, Tina Booroff and Ed Ramirez of the Casablanca Casino who definitely played customer golf in the event. Not to be outdone Premier Dr. Rufus Ewing and Chuck Musgrove won the most honest two-some by giving Mike Flynn and Gervin Simmons a head start as they claimed the cherished honour of winning the best two-some low net score with a fantastic day and score of 64.35.

Hole in One pay outs were sponsored by Norman Hamilton of NW Hamilton Insurance Co. as they provided all golfers with 3 chances at $10,000 on par three holes 4, 8, and 17, while Ocean Club covered the 15th hole for a weeklong stay at their Resorts. There were a couple of close calls narrowly missing adding to the excitement however golfers will have to wait until next time to claim the $10,000 cash from Norman's wallet!

The Wine Cellar, their dedicated staff, and Gilley Williams are to be congratulated for their vision, amazing sponsorship, and fantastic promotional efforts as this event is now a golfer favourite in The TCI, not to mention a week-long celebration geared to all to enjoy. This year's golf efforts added over $11,000 for these two very worthwhile programs. Well done to all of "The Wine Cellar Crew" including Tournament Organizers Desmond Williams and Tony Bell. No doubt we will see everyone next year!

BOB GRAHAM LEADS BY EXAMPLE IN THE TCIGA SCRAMBLE

The TCIGA teamed together with Bob Graham, The Wine Cellar, and many generous sponsors to celebrate the 20th Annual Bob Graham Classic by honoring Bob with a large field of twenty teams (80 golfers).

The successful tournament raised just over $15,000 for the Turks & Caicos Islands Golf Association (TCIGA). Over the many years Bob Graham has led the way in raising monies for the TCIGA and their international golf team with both his sponsorship and as the driving force behind this tournament. Bob was on hand this year sporting his grooved 90 year young golf swing as he captained his own team of Fraser Dods, Susie Nelles, and guest Dylan Freidmann. The Wine Cellar again took control with their very generous sponsorship of the amazing golfer's prize table. Many local sponsors and businesses contributed with hole in one sponsorship, hole sponsorships, and silent auction donations, these donations underpinned the financial success of the event and no doubt emphasizes the amazing feeling that the local golf community both displays and enjoys. Thank you all!

The Championship was captured by the "dream team" of Mervin Cox, Fred Herbrand, Rico Rolle, and John Donatien as they blasted their drives and drained their putts on way to a large two shot victory. The Seven Stars Team of Ken and Michelle Patterson, Paul Jobling, and Rob Eydenberg claimed second place while the Sackman team of Alan, Barbara, Warren, and Mary Ann Sackman finished in 3rd place with a score of 58.13. Fourth place went to John and Lesley Stevenson, Gordon Kerr, and Elain Dubensky. Sharp shooters on the par 3 holes were Fred Herbrand, Graham Malyan, John Donatien, and John Donatien (yes in golf if you are good you can win more than once) with the long drives thumped by Tammy Glugosh and Alan Sackman on the drivable 18th hole.

Provo Golf Club would like to offer our sincere appreciation to Bob Graham and The Wine Cellar for their longtime sponsorship and also to the numerous local businesses that support the silent auction by donating. A special mention to Chuck Musgrove this year who contributed with a welcomed, additional, substantial contribution. Provo Golf Club would like to thank Fraser Dods, "The TCIGA President", and his committee for all of their work in this annual event and their continual effort year round for the TCIGA. The TCIGA is an important part of promoting Golf in The Turks and Caicos Islands and through their membership in the Caribbean Golf Association it enables T & C golfers to participate in International tournaments. Please be reminded that Provo Golf Club is proud to reiterate that all PGC golf members are automatically qualified as TCIGA members through their annual club dues.

The Golf Association should also be commended for their unique twist in rules of The Bob Graham TCIGA Scramble that again this year added a welcomed and varied skill element to the fun format. Good work all!

3RD ANNUAL NATIONAL CANCER SOCIETY SCRAMBLE FUN FOR ALL

The National Cancer Society Scramble 'Teeing 'fore' a Cure' celebrated an outstanding third year by raising $22,000 for this great cause. Committee members, Marc Rawlins, Mike Flynn, and Paul Mitchell spearheaded, organized, and directed the casual tournament that emphasises fun and participation to a record 88 golfers (22 teams) on Sunday, May 1st at Provo Golf Club. The cause was well received by sponsors with Connolly KIA, Stanbrooks Law, and Scotia Bank headlining the event. Other generous donations came from the business community in the form of hole sponsorships as well as silent auction donations. A great effort by the committee and a heartfelt "Thank you" to the many sponsors sums up this excellent result!

Simon Dobbs captained his team of Chris Nesbit, Louise, and Paul Scott to the championship winning score of 54.00 edging out the 2nd place team by a fraction (54.50) which consisted of Tony Garland, Murad Mohamad, Dudley Carleton, and Ed Fontana. Third place was captured by Gemma Williams and her team of Colin Watson, Nicholas Abruscato, and Tony Wilton only a fraction back at 54.75. Sally "Swearsalot" Ward (at least that's what our kids call her) put on a free clinic as she guided, coached, and cussed her beginner team of David Ward, Denise, and Dave Douglas to a solid fourth place triumph. Sally made almost every putt she looked at, if only her team didn't let her down surely they would have claimed the Trophy.

Closest to the pins were won by Chris Nesbit, Jeff Lee, Terry Erskine, and Dave Douglas with no one claiming the hole in one prize on the 8th hole generously sponsored by Connolly Kia for the beautiful new KIA OPTIMA . Long drive champs for the day were Peter Horbury and Andrea Todd.

The Governor H.E. Peter Beckingham and Premier Dr. Rufus Ewing, were on hand to hit the ceremonial first drives off the tenth tee to start the tournament as well as participating on their respective teams. Fun was had by all and The TCI National Cancer Society was overwhelmed by the participation, the many sponsors, the generous silent auction bidders, and the incredible $22,000 outcome. Well done to Marc Rawlins and his committee who are already planning next year's 'Teeing fore a Cure' tournament scheduled for Sunday 7th May 2017.

FEBRUARY LADIES CADDY CUP

Madelaine Erskine and Tammy Glugosh organized another successful fun-filled Ladies Caddy Cup as the Men competed as hired helpers in order to caddy for their Lady Golfer as well as team together as their playing partner in the split net best ball, scramble format. Thirty-two golfers made teams of 16 and a whopping $3,700 was raised for The TCI Youth Chorale. Madelaine Erskine and her caddy Alex Aquino prevailed with Tammy Glugosh and her partner John Stevenson a close second. Wendy Hayward was on hand to conduct the youth singers for a few songs after play and a great day was had by all. Thank you to all of the golfers who raised the impressive sum as well as to Gilley Williams who unexpectedly donated $2,000 to the chorale. Provo Golf Club and all involved would like to express our sincere condolences to Bob Hayward and family as Wendy passed away two months later from her battle with cancer. Thank you Wendy for all that you did for the youth of the Turks and Caicos Islands. Rest in Peace.
